

WESTWOOD

Public School

Overview

Westwood was opened in 1975 and has established an excellent reputation for high academic expectations, dedicated teachers, and strong parent involvement. Located in the growing area of West Guelph, Westwood has a community focus that enriches our school. Students, staff, School Council and parents working together have created an excellent environment for learning and personal growth. Approximately 400 students in grades kindergarten to grade 8 represent our diverse economic and multicultural community.
